SPEAKER PROFILE

Strategies to Build Your Business Legacy

Rhett Kniep, CBB, CBI, M&AMI, is a certified business intermediary, M&A advisor, commercial real estate broker, and general building contractor, and for nearly 20 years, created, developed and sold commercial investments and businesses.

He provides expert advice in growth and exit strategies. He has valued and sold many different kinds of businesses, including retail, marketing, construction, trucking, manufacturing, and distribution businesses.

He functions as a professional advisor for the mergers and acquisitions of midmarket companies, creating exit plan strategies for owners approaching retirement.

Armed with decades of hands-on business experience and having schooled extensively in negotiation and law, Rhett is uniquely positioned to guide sellers and buyers through successful transactions.

Rhett's most sought after topics include:

- Negotiation
- Exit Strategies
- Business Valuation

"I've had Rhett at two events. He is one of our highest rated speakers. He gave the attendees more things to think about as it related to options in valuating their businesses. I've recommended Rhett to others seeking info about brokering their business."
